

2022 AIA SMC Election Slate

President	Jeff Missad, AIA
VP / President Elect	Hiromi Ogawa, AIA
Secretary / EP Director	Anne Chen, AIA
Treasurer	Robert Gooyer, AIA
Ex Officio	Mohammed Sedqi, AIA
Director	John Lum, AIA
Director	Heather Young, AIA
Director	Ana Williamson, AIA
Director	Mike Kastrop, AIA
Director	Noemi Avram, AIA
Associates Director	Ann Marie Taheny, Assoc. AIA
AIA CA Director	Eric Holm, AIA
Alternate AIA CA Director	Juliet Hsu, AIA
AIAS Representative	Open Position

Note: Candidates for 2022 election are listed in bold.

Hiromi Ogawa, AIA

AIA SMC Vice President / President Elect

Hiromi Ogawa is the founder and co-principal of Ogawa Fisher Architects, based in Palo Alto, California. Her design practice is rooted in the belief that smart, thoughtful design comes from a personal, collaborative process, with a high standard of design goals. Hiromi and her firm provide full architecture and interior design services for high-end custom residential projects throughout the Bay Area. Each of OFA's projects are truly custom and carefully tailored to meet each need.

In addition to her design practice, Hiromi has been an adjunct design professor at Portland State University and has also been a guest design critic at numerous institutions in Oregon and California. She has previously served on the board of the Urban League of Portland, and currently serves on the board (is the current Vice President) of the San Mateo County chapter of the American Institute of Architects. In her spare time, Hiromi enjoys cooking, being outdoors, and visiting museums. Her love of food, nature, and all things inspirational can be seen chronicled through her

Instagram account @hir.ogawa.

Anne Chen, AIA

AIA SMC Secretary / EP Director

Anne Chen is an architect and a project manager at Stanford Health Care (SHC) Planning Design and Construction. Since joining Stanford Health Care in 2017, she has been involved in several campus master planning projects and has been leading the planning for a new outpatient facility in Redwood City. Her focus has been on delivering flexible and functional spaces that can scale to address future growth and support changes in healthcare delivery and technologies. Prior to working at SHC, she lived in Portland, Oregon and worked at ZGF Architects on university campus planning, healthcare and state department projects.

Anne holds Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Architecture degrees from Rice University. She previously served on the AIASMC Board in 2018-2019.

Robert C. Gooyer, AIA

AIA SMC Director

Robert C. Gooyer, AIA has practiced Architecture, Space Planning and Medical Planning since 1976, after graduating from the University of Arizona with a 5 year Bachelors of Architecture Degree. Gooyer has been a registered Architect in the State of California since 1980 and obtained his NCARB Certificate in 1998.

Prior to forming RCG Architecture in 1991, Gooyer worked in an assortment of managerial positions in various architectural firms on the San Francisco Peninsula.

He has been the Principal-in-Charge or Project Manager for numerous projects ranging from $50,000,000.00 to as small as $5,000.00. These include acute hospitals, medical clinics, hotel complexes, industrial parks, regional and local shopping centers, religious facilities and large and small scale residences such as a recently completed $2,000,000.00 custom home and recently completed $25,000.00 addition.

Gooyer is a Corporate Member of the American Institute of Architects San Mateo County, has been its President as well as Vice-President, Treasurer, Director and Editor-in-Chief of the AIASMC's newsletter "Charrette" along with having chaired numerous committees and is again it's current Treasurer. He has served on the Board of the AIACC, is or has been an Emergency Safety Assessment Inspector of the OES/AIA/SMC, a Master Commissioner for the California

Architects Board and has served on and chaired the Planning Commission for the City of San Mateo and the ARB in Palo Alto.

Ana Williamson, AIA

AIA SMC Director

Ana exudes a visceral passion for architecture. Inspired by her Colombian homeland, her design vision is vibrant, responsive, dynamic. Over the past 20 years, her passion for the practice of architecture has yielded a close-knit community of collaborators, colleagues, and clients, who are dedicated to work that inspires. She selects work that feeds the soul and is committed to life-long learning and is always improving her craft. Her professional standards, love of modern design and thorough understanding of and respect for tradition are rooted in her professional provenance.

Ana gained her first exposure to architecture from her uncle Vicente Nasi, an Italian-born architect who established a successful practice in South America and was a contemporary of Le Corbusier. Ana earned her Masters Degree in Architecture at Princeton University, and her Bachelor of Design from the University of Florida. After university, she worked with internationally influential architects Alvaro Siza Vieira in Porto, Portugal (1992 Pritzker Laureate), and Michael Graves Architect in Princeton, New Jersey (2001 AIA Gold Medal). She began her practice in Menlo Park, shaping the Peninsula landscape for over 20 years. When not working on projects, you will find Ana biking at whirlwind speed and often winning races.

D. Michael Kastrop, AIA AIA SMC Director

D. Michael Kastrop, AIA, has been a licensed architect for over 30 years. Prior to founding his own firm, Mike worked for four different Bay Area architectural firms over the course of 10 years, beginning as a Project Architect, then Associate Architect and finally a Partner.

He is certified by the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards and is the former president of the Redwood City Downtown Business Group. He has extensive experience in retail, commercial, religious, industrial, recreational and residential projects. His designs combine technical functionality with artistic forms to create beautiful living and working environments. He consults on handicap accessibility issues and feng shui (the ancient art of design, promoting balance, harmony, and well-being). Mike has received awards in the fields of residential, retail and commercial design.

In his free time, Mike likes to play guitar and sing for his church music group. He is an avid sailor, and has won numerous regattas and awards with his Catalina 30 sailboat "Goose" on the San Francisco Bay.

Noemi Avram, AIA

AIA SMC Director

Noemi received her Master of Architecture, with emphasis in Urban Design from the University of Toronto, Canada, as well as an Architectural Degree from the University of Buenos Aires, Argentina.

She is a Licensed Architect, the Principal at Gumbinger Avram Architects, a Downtown San Mateo Architectural firm. In 2005 she served as President of the San Mateo County of the AIA

Noemi is a member of the San Mateo Chamber of Commerce, a Leadership Graduate who has donated many hours of her time to local community and professional endeavors. She served as a DSMA Board Member, a Foster City Planning Commissioner for 17 years, and is a member of the Rotary Club of Foster City (2012-2013 President). Currently Noemi is a Founding member of the Leadership Council San Mateo County.

Juliet Hsu, AIA AIA CA Director

Juliet Hsu is a licensed architect in California and Massachusetts with more than a dozen years of architectural design experience. Upon graduating from MIT and UC Berkeley, Juliet started her own residential practice. Her design of the first rammed earth residence in Mountain View, CA demonstrates Juliet's passion for mixing sustainability, technology, and architecture. In addition to rammed earth, she has worked with PISE, earth block, SIP, and other prefabrication methods. She is a Senior Associate at Field Architecture, an award-winning practice in Palo Alto. As Project Manager / Project Architect, she collaborates with builders, consultants, and leads staff designers on both mixed-use commercial and custom residential projects in Northern California.

Juliet is an active member of AIA San Mateo County and 2019 President of AIASMC.